

X-RAY FILM JACKET

Benefits

- Film jackets uniquely designed for X-Ray film
- Allows for convenient organization and protection of X-Rays
- Many design options to meet your filing needs

Overview

Preprinted X-Ray film jackets are designed for Radiology departments as a convenient alternative to custom printing.

Also available without printing, these jackets may be used in any Radiology filing system.

An optional report pocket on one side will safely store your documents and keep them separated from the film.

Attach labels to the sides of the jacket to fit your specific filing needs.
