

X-RAY FILM MAILERS

Benefits

- Keeps X-Ray film clean and secure during transport
- Available in a variety of styles and sizes
- Self-adhesive or string & button envelope closures ensure secure storage

Overview

Heavy duty mailing envelopes help protect X-Ray film while being transferred between locations. Our X-Ray Film Mailers are available in either green diamond border or brown Kraft stock.

We offer self-adhesive, as well as string & button, closures to keep films securely stored. An ungummed closure option is also available.

Preprinted text on the front of the envelope makes it easy to differentiate X-Rays from MRI films.
